

The Weekly Times, 125th year, September 14, 1994

Electric dreams

THE Government privatisation of the electricity industry is creating an opportunity for consumers.

That's why an Electricity Co-op Association is being formed — to represent the interests of consumers who want to own and control their own electric utilities.

Citizens in Orbost, for example, have already established an electricity co-operative.

If readers are interested in the co-operative option, I would be delighted to forward information on the new association.

David Griffiths,
71 Franciscan Av.,
Frankston, 3199.